Fifteen Are Released by Judge Sessions at Grand Rapids, Mich.

HELM ASKS FREEDOM

Ford's Democratic Opponent in Dramatic Appeal, One Indictment Nixed.

CASES—EX-APARTMENT, Mich.—STATE of Michigan against the Newberry defendants continues its trial following discharge this morning of 16 additional defendants who had been under investigation for the past seven weeks, until the assembly judiciary committee it had no right to impose any of the five new qualifications for office, nor demanded the continuation.

Declaring that the whole proceeding against his clients was "part of the national hysteria against radicals," Mr. Hillquit denounced Speaker Thaddeus C. Sweet, initiator of the outer movement. He asserted the action of the speaker was inexplicable, and did not fit in with the facts. He added that in times of normal national conditions, any such proceedings would have been undertaken.

In rugged phrase that more than upset the gravity of the court, Helm maintained that it was no crime to be "worked into an out of a case" except that his clients had faced a Missouri case in which the candidate was indicted for $1,000 to withdraw from the candidacy of another party.

The state supreme court held that this did not violate the corrupt practices act of Missouri but it did not maintain that they had much of an out-and-Helm.

Holding up the number of defendants to 88 was the victory of Judge Clarence W. Sessions. In discharging the 16 men he said he acted upon "very careful study of the record."

Discharge of Samuel O'Dell, former campaign treasurer, exposed the secret of the government links in the church relating to the Helm candidacy. O'Dell's grand jury testimony showed him as acknowledging that he suggested the Helm candidacy to Paul King, Newberry campaign manager, and other testimony showed that he had a conference with Helm and urged him to run for the democratic nomination against Henry Ford.

WRECK SPOILS EXHIBIT

ADAMS OFFICE IS FILLED WITH GLOOM
After Word From Factory About Show Trucks.

The Adams Motor Sales company who recently was appointed distributors for eastern Oklahoma by the Federal Motor Truck company has already proven itself to be full of resourcefulness and pep and otherwise qualified to properly look after the output of one of the oldest and largest manufacturers in the truck world.

The company's first car load of trucks was ordered with the Tulsa motor show in mind and were therefore painted and decorated accordingly. The five men are Detectives and Earl Kiger, Walter Remon, George Redmon and Patrolman Al. Miles.

Although pay for each of the men was fixed at $1,000, Nashville became so anxious about the arrival of the men that they were sent off to the factory and called them arrested. The five men are Detectives and Earl Kiger, Walter Remon, George Redmon and Patrolman Al. Miles.

Last week the Adams company received a wire from the Federal factory that the car load of trucks had been wrecked on an eastern railroad and returned to the factory. It was too late to get another car load to Tulsa in time for the motor show so enough trucks were hurriedly in their working clothes.

There was deep gloom in the Adams office but only for a moment. Neither Adams nor Manager Irving having attained their place in the business world of Tulsa by giving up to adverse conditions.

The long distance wire was brought to the Adams office and made with another Federal distributor for a truck to enter at the show. A driver was hurriedly dispatched to Oklahoma City, drove the chassis overland and now resting in its booth at the motor show it seems to give the impression that that's nothing more than you could expect of a well behaved truck accustomed to work.

On the steering wheel is a little red card. A birthday card, announcing Federals tenth birthday.

Noticing the writer's interest Manager Tom Irving said, "Yes, we waited till he was 10 years old because we figured that he would be old enough to believe us." Then added, "If a poor newspaper reporter could possibly be a prospect, 'he does'."

No, you can't keep a squirrel on the ground if there is a tree to climb.

HILLQUIT CLOSES OUSTER PROTEST

Attorney for Socialists Sums Up Arguments in New York.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 3.—Morris Hillquit, summing up in a five-hour speech today in defense of the five suspended socialist members who have been under investigation for the past seven weeks, told the assembly judiciary committee it had no right to impose any of the five new qualifications for office, nor demand the continuation.

Declaring that the whole proceeding against his clients was "part of the national hysteria against radicals," Mr. Hillquit denounced Speaker Thaddeus C. Sweet, initiator of the outer movement. He asserted the action of the speaker was inexplicable, and did not fit in with the facts. He added that in times of normal national conditions, any such proceedings would have been undertaken.

Mr. Hillquit demanded that the judiciary committee frame a report recommending the creation of the free socialist and completed his summing up with a warning that the socialist members were unassisted in their efforts to prove their innocence.
